CENTRAL HIGH

Foreword

IN the publication of this, the thirty-second volume of SNIPS AND CUTS, it has been our earnest endeavor to recreate the "spirit" of our life at Central. We have striven through the medium of the camera and the pen to produce a book of memories which will be cherished for years to come. If this book brings back one fond recollection, our work will not have been in vain.

Dedication

THEY taught us our first lessons in playing together at Central as they enrolled us and welcomed us to high school. Their guidance has continued to smooth our paths and to point toward a way of life that is rich, satisfying and joyous. Their search for truth has helped us to see our value as individuals. We, the Seniors of 1941, dedicate our SNIPS AND CUTS to our coaches.

CLASS POEM

We love this school of matchless beauty;
The strength and power which she imparts,
And, now, as we prepare to leave,
We take her memories in our hearts.
The pleasures of Friendships we have made,
The beauty of the willows in the morn,
The sparkling fountain in the sunlight
And ambitions that here were born,
The knowledge we have gained here
Shall guide us throughout life,
And to add to Central's glory
Shall be our life-long strife.

Dottie Sappenfield, Class Poet.

The senior ring committee is made up of students chosen in the spring of their junior year for their dependability and sense of responsibility. The selection is made by the preceding committee and the adviser. The duties of the committee consist of signing the contract with the ring company, measuring students, receiving payments for rings, ordering rings, and delivering them to the students. Each year approximately four hundred rings are handled by the committee. Miss Fore is the faculty adviser for the committee.

VISUAL AIDS COMMITTEE

OFFICERS

BILL DELANEY ..... Co-Chairman
JEROME LEVIN ..... Co-Chairman
HERMAN ALLEY ..... Advisory Chairman
DOROTHY AUSTIN ..... Secretary

MEMBERS

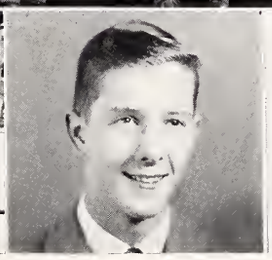
First Row: Erwin Zimmerman, Ed Burnside, Bill Masterman, Mary Frances Black, Mary Richardson, Hoyle Wilson, Bobby Graham, Charlie Sayer.

Second Row: Dick Van Every, Jack Beall, Emmett Wishart, Everette Campbell, Teddy Morris, Dwight Irwin, Bob Conatzer.

Third Row: Cordell Carpenter, Walter Lyon, Bill Groome, Gerald King, Billy Seagraves, Gilbert Duncan, Louis Frank.

Fourth Row: Johnnie Green, Chris Pappas, Charlie Reid. Absent: Hobart Sutton, B. D. Rodgers.

The Visual Aids Committee is one of the most important in our school. Its business includes the interviewing of teachers about films, the ordering of these films, the operation of the projectors in the classrooms, and the returning of films to the distributors.



OPERATIONS COMMITTEE

DR. E. H. GARINGER, Adviser BILL BAYNARD, Chairman

Second row: Jennings Galloway, C. C. Fesperman, George Ivey, Everate Campbell, Charles Sayers, Marion Ward.

Third row: Jim Baynard, Ed Smith, Jim Bell, Atwood Skinner, Tommy Glasgow, Bobby Persival, Ernest Smith, Evan McWhirter.

The Operations Committee, one of the largest in the school, is composed of 23 members whose combined efforts behind the fine leadership of Chairman Bill Baynard and Dr. Garinger, the adviser, has kept the school in the financial block. The money made by the noon movies every Tuesday and Thursday is divided between the Visual Aids Committee and the student assembly. The money received by the Visual Aids Committee is spent in the upkeep and purchase of new equipment for the committee, and for the movies shown in guidance and the classroom. The money received by the Student Assembly is put with the money earned by the carnival and the variety show to pay the running expenses of the assembly. The Operations Committee also furnishes the public address system for the afternoon and evening dances, carnival, speeches, and jam sessions. The committee also furnishes music for the guidance programs and the afternoon dances. This shows the importance of the Operations Committee and its members to our school and to our school life.

DANCE COMMITTEE

HAROLD COOKE, Chairman

The Dance Committee gave during the year of 1940-41 eight school dances. The first dance was a big success, "The Freshman Hop," followed by "The Holiday Hop." Then came the Valentine Invitational which was considered by most of the students as one of the best the school has had.

The second semester rolled around with the Dance Committee giving four dances in a row which pleased everyone. Then came the dance all seniors had looked forward to from the time they entered school—The Junior-Senior. This went down in dance history as one of the best ever held at the High School.

All the glory goes to the boys on the dance committee. Their never-tiring help and efforts brought about a new light which caused the students to enjoy the dances given them by the Dance Committee.

CENTRAL 13; BARIUM SPRINGS 13

September 27, 1940

Barium Springs, in the opening game of the season, held our Wildcats, in new uniforms, to a 13-13 tie. Barium's well developed passing attack kept them right in there to set off the swift running attack of Central. With the aid of a beautiful block by Ted McLaughlin, David Coates ripped off the most beautiful run of the night for 91 yards and a touchdown. Charlie Mulwee and Captain Andy Karres played commendable ball in the line for Central. Roach was outstanding for Barium Springs.

JOHN MARSHALL, Richmond 7; CENTRAL 0

October 5, 1940

The Wildcats could not get started after a long trip to Richmond and they came out on the short end of a 7-0 score. Except for a fumble by Bob Sideman in the first quarter the game would have probably ended in a 0-0 tie. Most of the game developed into a kicking duel between Coates of Central and Klein of Richmond. James Lindsay and Captain Andy Karres played a bang-up game for Central even in defeat.

First row: John Muse, Bob Sideman, David Coates, Harold Cooke, Leonard Green, Andy Karres, Keg Wheeler, Charlie Mulwee, Hulette Grice, Billy Morris, Ed Dudley.

Second row: Jim Whitehurst, Buck Merchant, John House, Jack McCracken, Leland Puckett, Hal Owens, James Lindsay, Crawford Ferguson, Ted McLaughlin, George Payne, Floyd Simmons.

Third row: Forrest Caldwell, Ben Ivey, Walter Spearman, Wayman Leftwich, Teddy Meyer, Joe Kumpe, Ralph Kelly, Paul Berg, Nisbet Rodgers, Donald Charles.

Fourth row: Rilburn Owensby, Ralph Haley.

Fifth row: Manager Howard Elliott, Assistant Managers Everett Campbell, Nevin Rice, Bill Campbell, Sidney Armstrong.

Central vs. Reynolds High,
Winston-Salem, October 11, 1940

The Wildcats played the kind of ball they are capable of playing in downing Winston-Salem 14-0. Beautiful blocking was a feature of the game. The Wildcats entered the game as underdogs but really came through.

Central vs. Raleigh
October 18, 1940

Again the Wildcats played superb football and Raleigh High went down before the Cats 7-19. Senter of Raleigh was a constant thorn in the Wildcats' defense with his deadly passing attack. Captain Andy Karres' defensive play was a highlight of the game along with Harold Cook's blocking and David Coates' magnificent running and punting.

Central 47; Spartanburg 0
October 25, 1940

The Central football machine really rolled this time by overwhelming Spartanburg 47-0. Beautiful blocking was a main feature in the game. The fine running of Chunk Simmons, second string quarterback, was the best performance given by any individual football player in the Memorial Stadium this year. Simmons racked up five touchdowns with his devastating running behind the fine blocking of Bob Sideman, Billy Morris, and Harold Cook. The Spartans played hard until the game was over, but they were completely outclassed. Co-Captains Andy Karres and Keg Wheeler, Charlie Mulwee, and reserve Ted Meyer led the line play of the Wildcats. Coach Bradford used his entire roster in rolling over the Sparts by such a lopsided score.

Central 19; High Point 6

November 4, 1940

After having been rained out in their first attempt to play High Point, the Wildcats managed a hard-earned victory over the Bisons 19-6. The game was exceedingly rough, and the Wildcats were none too impressive. Billy Morris was outstanding on defense and offense along with David Coates. Bob Sideman showed his usual power in his line bucks.

Central 19; Columbia 0

November 9, 1940

Again the Wildcats entered a game as the underdogs, but they really showed what kind of football they can play by defeating Columbia 19-0. This win broke a four-year jinx that Columbia had over our Wildcats. The Caps couldn't penetrate past the Wildcat 40-yard line. David Coates gave another one of his magnificent football performances by leading the Wildcats and by scoring two touchdowns. One of the touchdowns was a 55-yard punt return in the last few minutes of the game. Co-Captain Andy Karres and end Johnny Muse were mainstays in the strong Central line.

Columbia has only been beaten one year in all the years of football that Central has played them. This year makes the second time.

Central 12; Asheville 12

November 15, 1940

Probably the freezing weather having some effect on them, the Wildcats only managed a 12-12 tie with an underdog Asheville team. David Coates saved the game for the Wildcats with a 95-yard return of a kickoff in the third quarter.

Central 14; Atlanta Tech 0
November 23, 1940

Playing in extremely hot weather and showing marked superiority over their opponents, the Central High Wildcats downed the Atlanta Tech team, 14-0. Bob Sideman was the ball-carrying star with his constant line bucks. The Techs simply couldn't stop him. Co-Captain Andy Karres again gave an outstanding defensive exhibition for the Wildcats. He broke through the Tech blockers all afternoon to nail them for losses. Charlie Mulwee and Pug Green also played spectacular football for the Wildcats. This was the first win for the Wildcats over Atlanta in a number of years.

Central 37; Harding 0
November 29, 1940

The final victim of the mighty Central High Wildcats for 1940 was Harding High. The Wildcats smashed the city-rivals 37-0 for an easy victory. David Coates, Bob Sideman, Chunk Simmons, George Payne, and Ralph Kelly led the Wildcats with their magnificent running attack. A highlight of the game was Sideman's 100-yard run of Smith's pass for a touchdown, only to have it called back by a clipping penalty. Co-Captains Andy Karres and Keg Wheeler, Pug Green, Harold Cooke, and Charlie Mulwee were outstanding in the Wildcats' hard-charging forward wall.

1941 BASKETBALL SEASON

Although the Silver Streaks didn't quite live up to expectations, they came out with a fine record, considering that they played the hardest teams in the state. They won 15 games and lost 11. Six of the eleven losses were to either college freshmen or prep schools. They lost only 5 games to high school competition, which is a remarkable record. Three of the 15 wins were over college freshmen. Johnny Muse was the spark of the team throughout the season along with George Sherrill, Charles Porter, David Coates, Bill Freeze, and Ed Dudley. Substitutes Hal Owens, Doug Donald, Gordon Gatlin, Ken McIntyre, Bill Simmons, and Bob Sideman played well in relief rolls.

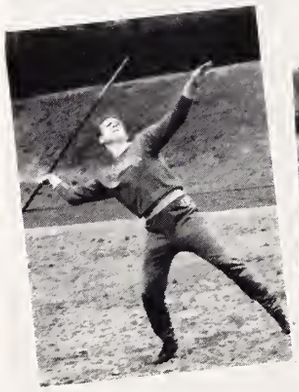
In the first meet of the year a triangular meet between Central, High Point, and Salisbury, Central was overwhelmingly victorious, defeating her opponents by the score of 84 to 23 to 13. The meet was run in a pouring rain and as a result of this the times made were not exceptionally good. However, Central's power and superiority over her oponents was plainly evident even on a sloppy track. Standout performances in this meet were rendered by Bob Phillips, Bill Hood and Crawford Ferguson in the dashes; Bill Simons and Chunk Simmons in the high hurdles; Charlie Mulwee and Keg Wheeler in the weights; and David Coates and Wheeler in the low hurdles. Bill Palmer in the mile and Jimmy Reid in the half-mile also turned in excellent performances against MacKenzie from Salisbury who pulled an iron man act by taking both the mile and half-mile runs. He clipped three seconds off the state record for the mile. This was not official, however.

In their first meet of the year Coach Bradford's boys showed a great deal of power, and indications that great things may be expected from them this year.



First row: Earnest Smith, Bob Williams, Bill Palmer, Bill Simmons, George Payne, Bill Hood, Charlie Mulwee, Keg Wheeler. Second row: Charles McCann, Joel Mills, Bobby Phillips, Ted Meyer, Atwood Skinner, Jimmy Reid, Crawford Ferguson, Benton Dean. Third row: David Coates, Jack Gilbert, Bill Pressly, Chunk Simmons, Jim Whitehurst, Vernon Patterson, L. BASEBALL

The outlook for the Central baseball team seems very bright, at the time this book goes to press. The first game will be played April 8 out-of-town. Probable cinchers of positions are Jackie Helms at third base, Billy Freeze at shortstop, Craig Lybrand at second base, John Muse or Ken McIntyre at first base, Bobby Brandes behind the plate, Ken Wood in the outfield, pitchers George Livingston, Stuart Childs, and Paul Brooks.

CENTRAL'S BOXING TEAM

Central's boxing team, undefeated in 28 matches and groomed as State, Dixie and Southern Champs renewed their ring wars by venturing into a schedule that was expected to snap the long, winning streak of the national renown champs.

Bessemer City ventured to Charlotte with their strongest team in its history to but go down by a defeat of 9 to 1. Coach Bradford's little proteges showed superior class in every respect. Drawing the feature of the night went to Central's version of hammering Henry Armstrong, Dwight Moore.

Next Central was groomed for one of the toughest meets of the season but came through in a style that really showed superior coaching and training. This foe was Atlanta Tech who returned home after a shameful defeat of 10 to 0 of which 6 knockouts were featured. Idol, Meena, Moore, Rice, Kissiah, and Captain Green were the ones who administered these knockouts.

Central next ventured out of town to add one more victim to their long string of consecutive wins. This opponent being Hamlet. Central fought at a disadvantage throughout this entire night but came out with 5½ to 3½ win that was earned without any question whatsoever. Captain Pug Green drew the toughest assignment by fighting McGee of Hamlet. The Hamlet lad nosed out a close decision.

Central's next opponent, who undefeated in 20 years, met their first defeat by tangling with the Wildcats. This meet took place in Staunton, Virginia, on the home ground of the Cadets. Central surprised all by coming home with a 5½ to 3½ win. This meet made the 32nd consecutive win for the Cats and by this win were acclaimed Southern Interscholastic Champs. Central's Jimmie Meena and Donald Kinsey scored K. O.'s while Dwight Moore, Ray Kissiah and Captain Pug Green won decisive victories over their respective opponents.

The Wildcats' last opponent was Savannah Boys High. Central ventured to this city and administered this team their worst defeat in many years. This ended by a score of 6½ to 2½. Central's Dwight Moore administered a K. O. in the feature bout of the night.

TENNIS

Central's tennis team out to win the Southern championship for the third consecutive year have a very hard schedule before them. They will start off the season with U. N. C. freshmen, which will be the hardest match of the year.

The tennis team like the boxing team will start this season with twenty-five consecutive victories. Coach Gelwick is looking for another year without defeat.

Back with the team this year comes the five starters from last year, they are: Captain Bob Spurrier, Don Hatch, Theo McLaughlin, Dan Knee, and Ted Keesler.

So this is Commencement

Happy landings, Boys and Girls! It's a wonderful time, isn't it? And yet a time for serious planning too, because the race still lies ahead.

Here's one worthwhile tip for future reference: The few pennies a day you spend for electric service is the best investment you can make to simplify daily tasks and reduce the cost of a happy existence.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sirs:

I viewed with interest the picture of Andy Karres, (LIFE, May 16) our captain of the football team and President of the Student Council. If I am not too inquisitive, just what football position do you call this? Is it a new one that Coach Boylston thought up? I don't think it is very representative of the fine fellow that he is. I also notice one other picture of two of Central's renowned football team, though not in uniform, in a very repulsive pose.

Anonymous sport stooge.

We can give no answer to this sport stooge other than the idiosyncrasies of football players. (Ed.)

Dear Sirs:

I have some complaints to make and I think I speak for a great many of your customers. The items to which I refer are the beauty section and the snapshot section.

As for the beauty section, I think some outside person should pick the prettiest girls. As it stands it is a popularity contest and some of the most beautiful girls at Central are left out. I notice that in one of the past SNIPS & CUTS a man from Chicago picked them from pictures. I object to this too, as pictures often belie real beauty.

The snapshot section, besides being entirely too small, has been in the past of mostly one group of students. For instance, the annual of 1940 had one girl's picture in seven snapshots. With 1700 students in Central your photographers certainly should spread their work over a larger number.

I hope you will take my criticism in a constructive way because I think the annual is getting better every year.

Sincerely,

Anonymous.

Thank you very much Mr. Anonymous for your very constructive letter. As for the beauty section this year, we endeavored a compromise. The eight beauties that appear on the first page were elected by popular vote of all the boys at Central. The boys of Central, we feel, are true judges of beauty though they often let popularity influence their voting greatly. Due to this reason, on the second page appear beauties selected by a committee, whose names we will not mention. This committee, composed of both boys and girls, was instructed to nominate and vote solely for beauty and beauty alone. They were given the names of the girls elected by popular vote and asked to elect eight others who they thought should appear in the beauty section in the annual. We hope that there was no misunderstanding about this and there were no feelings hurt.

As for the snapshot section, we submit this feature section as our endeavor to satisfy this demand. A special effort was made in taking the general snapshots to have all groups at Central represented. (Ed.)

You will take increasing pride and joy with your Balfour ring

SPEAKING OF PICTURES

These snapshots of Central couples are typical of what goes on around Central from day to day the whole year round. Love is what makes the world go round and there is plenty of it here. At sometime or other, everybody goes through the painful, heart-rending methods of winning the one you think you love. It is very confusing though the way it's done. The boys are madly in love with one girl one day and the next it's her best girl friend. We made no endeavor to pick steady couples with these snaps but simply took them as they were found together.

Couples have drifted apart, partners have been changed, and many love affairs have broken up. During football season all the girls fell for football players. Martha Parrish and Keg Wheeler, Cooper and George Payne, Smitty and Johnny Muse, Betty Clinton and Andy Karres (they lasted), Mr. Central fell for Miss Central and so it goes.

Pete Crayton always did find good reasons for getting Rosemary Holland out of classes. John Williams always took good care of Lib Heard. It was a different one for Mary Esther Civil every week. The "Sequoia" Johnny Williams is pictured with Lillian Daughtery but he has gone with about 4 or 5 girls this year. Let's see—there was Deannie Shaw, Dottie Sappenfield, Sara Mosley and Peggy Curlee.

And so the closing of books may be the closing of romances. And then again it may be the beginning. Who Knows???

LIFE'S COVER

To Amanda Parsley, Snips & Cuts gives the honor of being Life's cover girl. Amanda was selected by the senior class to be the most beautiful girl in the senior class. "Manda" is always a welcome sight with her knitting and books in her hands. She had a scholastic record anyone would be proud of with all A's many times showing on her record. Manda always has a pleasant smile and word for everyone. Snips & Cuts is indeed proud to give this honor to Amanda Parsley.

LIFE REPORTS

Last month the official prophet of the senior class, through his mystic powers granted by election, drifted miraculously into the great land of Provenity. After a stay of several weeks—a great task for even the greatest of correspondents—he escaped just before the great forces of Procrastination and Boredom attacked. With him he brought the one and only document explaining the situation in Provenity—a letter to a close friend of his, Miss Caroline Cooper. LIFE publishes this for the first time—The Prophecy of the Class of 1941.

Miss Caroline Cooper
164 West Plato Ave.
Bankok, Siam

Dear Cooper:

I received your letter in this morning's mail, and let me be the first to congratulate you on your forthcoming marriage. You win! Remember the bet we made graduation night ten years ago that you would be "hitched" before me. Well I'm still single but have my hopes. I must admit that I had no idea that your choice would be one of our own '41 class—Bert Cassels! He always was the lucky one. By the way, Cooper, you should see some of our old classmates these days. They've really gone places and done things.

Just yesterday I saw where Brevard Myers had been arrested for speeding for the twelfth time this month, and on top of all that there are about thirteen citizens around town that are suing him for reckless driving with intent to kill. Well, you can't blame them. He always was a "mad-man" behind the wheel.

Augusta Cardo is now the gun moll of Fowler Woodside, Public Enemy No. 2¼. The "Mouse," as Woodside is affectionately known, made a get-a-way on his famous, high-powered, Blue-gooser tricycle, and is still at large.

June Smith, Amanda Parsley, Betty Baxter, Speed Hovis, and Joanne Newman are still slouching around together. They are now touring the whole western division of the eastern end of the state with Mr. Peter B. Crayton's World Famous Circus and Menagerie as some of the greatest freaks of nature ever presented to the American public. I forgot to mention that Jimmy Glenn was just rewarded for his many years of constant practice and study in the field of music, by promotion to assistant leader of the three-piece Circus Band and Ensemble. I know you join me in wishing him the best of luck.

Keg Wheeler, Raymond Kissiah, and Charlie Mulwee are now at the present time instructors in Monsieur Wheeler's School for Violin and Harp. They're endeavoring to teach all the girls in the city to play—(I think that is what they are teaching them!)

You should see the two old maids that live down the street from me. They're the two Peggys—Curlee and Howard. The very latest invention in their mad man-hunt is to throw a net over the hapless victim and to gently subdue him with a steel rod or cast iron poker which they carry with them at all times. If the unhappy one happens to be under 94 years of age and can at least move about, they keep him. If he's otherwise, they flip a coin to see which one gets to beat his brains out. Wish 'em luck (the men).

Our ole president, Bobbie Miller, is doing a fine job these days, too. He happens to be working for the city at the present time, and plans an extensive clean-up campaign in the near future. I believe that his plan will be a huge success since he is the Chief of the Street Cleaners of the lower East end of Second Ward District No. 4. Mr. Miller was not satisfied in serving the city in this one respect but has accepted another high position—Garbage Collector for the same said precinct. Helping him clean up (?) are other well-known gutter manicurists namely: Private Carlisle Adams, Lieutenant Theo McLaughlin, Sergeant Charlie Sellers, Captain Donald Bryant, and the Rev. Thomas McPheeters Glasgow Phd & AAK.

You'll be surprised to hear that Jon Gibbs is the new president of the Woman's College of S. C. Dr. Gibbs has announced that the science department of the school will soon send up a balloon for stratosphere research in that field. He has generously agreed to donate the air needed to inflate the sphere. Dr. Gibbs assures us that, quote, "That's okay, folks, I'll have plenty left," unquote. Tootie "rag-weed" Harvey is the Dean of Girls of the same institution.

I know you remember Gerald Mundy, Charlie Mincey, and Robert Evans. Well, they all help run Mincey's Pig and Hog Farm out on the Monroe Road now. Remember how they were always looking for some really beautiful women back at ole CHS? Well, their search is ended. Yes, on Mincey's Pig and Hog Farm, they declare can be found the fairest creatures on earth.

Tut Diggle, Sara Grice, Margaret Cox, Lib Price, Mary Catherine McIntyre, and Rosemary Holland are now hostesses in the new army camp near here. The belles left for camp yesterday to assume duties and arrived today. A funny thing happened though, because on the same day that the girls arrived 326 soldiers dropped over dead out of a possible 500 encamped here. It must have been the heat. Yeh, it must have been the heat.

Many of our ole grads are in Movieland now and making good too. A new Tarzan picture, "Tarzan the Lover" starring Robert "Atlas" Zachary and Joanna "Flapper" Houchins played here last week. "Mamma's Little Boys" featuring Pug "Honey-cup" Green, Harold "Buddy-boy" Cook, Billy "Butter-ball" Morris, George "Dew-drop" Payne, Stu "Rosemouth" Childs, and G. B. "Water-Lily" Holtzclaw opened today.

Doc McClelland, Joey Paxton, Ella Mae Kanoy, Eva Cole, Harriet Millersham, and Geraldine Mundy are now teachers down at Central. The girls hated so to leave the institution of higher learning that they were permitted to remain and teach there. You certainly remember how they all nearly collapsed from too much study our senior year. One or two had nervous breakdowns, I heard. Terrible how they used to worry and grieve over a few little lessons, wasn't it? However they'll never be separated from their beloved alma mater as long as they live.

Quite a few of our boys are really famous now. You've no doubt read in the papers about Rubin Greenleaf Ginsberg. Well, that's ole John Allan who graduated with us, and Ginsberg is just his penname. Perhaps you've read some of his more famous poems. Just recently he's completed "Ode to a Rose," "Ode to a Dove" and "Owed to a Tailor" (with two pairs of pants). Really beautiful works—

Ira Davis, Dolf Wolford, and Bob Sanders are now on the stage appearing as the three greatest imitators in the world. Sanders, considered the greatest, can easily impersonate in rapid succession the Queen of Amaramcaculucus, the standing army of Czecho-Slovakia, Congress in session, and The French Revolution. The boys have just finished a tour of East India, Iceland, and an extended engagement between Rockingham and Salisbury.

I'm sure you haven't forgotten three of the purest little fellows that ever were graduated from our fair school—Frank Jackson, Francis Tomlinson, and Robert Cochrane. They're all doing a little farming now-a-days. They raise cotton, beans, cain, and mushrooms to some extent, but they specialize in corn! However the boys are always getting in trouble with the law, 'seems like. The Federal Government states that they would much rather have the boys keep their corn in a solid form instead of changing it to a liquid state. Nevertheless, everything turned out all right because Uncle Sam is gonna give them about thirty years with room and board free, to think it over and decide to be good lads.

Well, Cooper, that's just about all the news. Here's wishing you all the happiness in the world, and the best of everything in married life. Don't forget us all back home, and pay us a visit real soon. We'll see if we can't dig up some of those good times we used to have and 'round up a few of the "ole" crowd.

Luck to ya',

CONVERSE ROUNTREE,

Prophet of the class of '41.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY CARNIVAL

SNIPS AND CUTS goes to the St. Patrick's Day Carnival along with a crowd of 1,500 people made up of jubilant students and outsiders.

When the doors of the Armory were opened at 7:30 o'clock on the evening of March 21, a crowd already excited by the afternoon parade began pouring in and scattering to the different concessions.

In a few minutes the booths were buzzing with activity, and it was seemingly impossible that a few days before the floor of the building had been bare and that even a few hours before there were only empty, unadorned sections laid off for the concessions.

The construction work and general management of the entire affair was the task of the Carnival committee, made up of Billy Morris, Bobby Percival, Joe Kumpe, Pete Crayton, Converse Rountree, Harold Cooke, Jimmy Glenn, Ed Thomason, Ira Davis, Bob Horning, L. A. Waggoner, Bill Baynard, Jimmy Meena, Keg Wheeler, Buck Blalock, Bert Cassells, Ernest Morgan, and Andy Karres. Under Chairman Morris, the committee donned overalls and began the construction about the middle of the week. Representatives from each homeroom and organization had already been chosen and several meetings had been called before definite plans could be drawn up and outlined.

Morris and his men found no end of work in the preparation. Besides 52 concessions to provide for, there was a 45-minute stage show to plan, a public address system to install, seven booths to wire for electricity, a parade to arrange, and an election for the royalty to be held.

So when the gala day arrived the carnival boys were still in overalls and weary from lack of sleep, but nevertheless determined and confident that everything would be in readiness. And it was.

Made spectacular by the typical balloons, convertibles, and horns, the parade began at 3:30. Highlighted by the regal float carrying King Keg Wheeler, Queen Blanche Lampke, and her four attendants—Lib Price, Amanda Parsley, June Smith, and Virginia Livie—the procession was led across the square and through town by Central's marching musicians.

The parade marked the beginning of the festivities but not the end of work. The booths were still undecorated, the public address system had not yet been perfected, and some construction work was still necessary. So activity in the Armory was still in progress. Within a few hours the bare wood was transformed into colorful booths stacked high with provisions for the night. When opening time arrived tired students who had not yet been home for the day had just driven the last nail, tied up the last balloon, and were ready to greet the first customer.

Within 15 minutes after the doors were opened, the Armory was swarming with prospective customers whose pockets jingled with nickels, dimes, and quarters. They trotted from concession to concession—from little Monte Carlo to bingo, from pitching baseballs to rifling, with stops at the eating booths for the pause that refreshes. Students behind the counters were rushed with business and despairing for aid while the people on the other side hurried the waiters and waitresses so that they could push their way to the next booth. The first hour was spent in discovering new concessions and pastimes, exchanging nickels for tickets, and dropping these tickets on the counters.

Concessionaires found a lull in activity while, with a hot dog in one hand and a biddie won on the roulette wheel in the other, the crowd gathered around for a gala stage show. With Pete Crayton as master of ceremonies, a swing orchestra, and six other features, the show became a super-colossal success highlighted by the coronation of the royal couple. Ted Pappas and his Central High Indians with Deanie Shaw as vocalist played the sweet and low and then swung out in some jiving tunes that found students patting their feet and barely resisting the urge to dance. Truck Holtzclaw's Irish airs gave vent to the feeling for the "old country." Central's trombone quartet composed of Jimmy Foures, Phil Glotzer, Tug Abernethy, and Don Bryant, did their share of the entertaining. A contrast in modern dancing was shown by little Bobby and Patricia Poole in a rhumba and Otto Overcash and Betty Williams in a stomping jitterbug session.

Fifteen minutes after the curtains were closed on a stage show that would put Broadway to shame, the curtains were opened on a fashion show in the balcony. With the music of Kemp Dunaway's little symphony in the background, eight models were shown in morning dresses, afternoon dresses, date dresses, and evening dresses. A repeat performance was necessitated by the overflow of spectators.

Meanwhile the activity downstairs had been resumed. Students looked into the future in the fortune-telling booth, laughed at the past in the Rogue's Gallery, and dreaded closing time.

And eleven o'clock was closing time for all but the carnival committee and the concessionaires. It was checking time for them. With figures before them that would have frightened the greatest mathematicians, they checked and double-checked with every precaution. It was not even closing time for them by the end of the next week. There were the Student Council, the home room, and the expense shares to apportion. There was more checking and double-checking to do.

But at eleven o'clock, the others went home from a St. Patrick's Day Carnival that was acclaimed as one of the most successful in the history of Central High.

SUPERLATIVES

CHARLIE MINCEY, Best Looking Boy

Perhaps you've seen a green convertible come rolling up in front of the school in the morning and a good-looking boy get out. That was Charlie Mincey. Of course a convertible always helps with the girls, but most of them think of Charlie as going under those coveted adjectives, tall, dark, and handsome.

AMANDA PARSLEY, Best Looking Girl

Cute?—I'll say she is, and she's got what it takes. Hollywood never has had anything on Central and here's proof of it. Hollywood had better watch its step if Central ever goes into the movie business. Some day in the not so distant future you'll read in the paper that Amanda Parsley has been chosen Miss America.

FOWLER WOODSIDE, Best Boy Dancer

All the girls say that he's a smooth dancer, but he is just a jitterbug at heart. If he takes up tap dancing, he may become another Bill Robinson; but it is this commentator's opinion that Fred Astaire had better watch his steps from now on.

JUNE SMITH, Best Girl Dancer

If you have ever gone to a school dance, perhaps you were puzzled by that crowd of boys that jammed the center of the floor. Investigations were made recently, and it was found to be June Smith's stag line. Maybe some day we'll see Smith and Woodside written in the bright lights.

GERALD MUNDY, Best Dressed Boy

Gerald Munday heads the list of well dressed boys at Central. If you've never seen a walking fashion plate right out of "Esquire," just take a look at Gerald. Of course, as soon as he is graduated he will take his place as one of the ten best dressed men in the nation.

MARY LOUISE HOVIS, Best Dressed Girl

It's a fact that the women of the United States are the world's best dressers. This claim can easily be verified by taking a look at Mary Louise Hovis. It's easy to see that her knowledge of the technicalities of being well dressed will some day win her a position on the staff of "Vogue" or "Mademoiselle."

CONVERSE ROUNTREE, Wittiest Boy

No one can deny that Converse is a first class wit of some kind or other. Have you heard his latest? If not, see him at once. It won't be long until the "Saturday Evening Post" will be printing his column, "Wit and Wisdom." Of course, Converse may never take Irvin Cobb's place, but his place in the "Hall of Wits" is assured.

MARGARET COX, Wittiest Girl

Her own individual dialect of the American language will win forever in the minds of those who know her. The way she says things no one else would think of, or could say if they did think of it. We'll no doubt have her on the radio within a year. She's queen of the talent of putting people in a silly humor with only an expression or wisecrack.

SUPERLATIVES

ANDY KARRES, Best Boy Athlete

If you've seen Andy playing football, you can easily understand why he was chosen as the Best Boy Athlete. It's his fighting spirit that makes him such a good athlete. Even when he's groggy from being hit so much, he sticks in there and keeps plugging away until the game is won.

JACKIE TADLOCK, Best Girl Athlete

You've seen her get up at bat, and bring that look of anticipation from the girls and admiration from the boys. Hard as it is to get a boy to admit that a girl is a good athlete, Jackie just doesn't leave them any choice—they have to admit it.

PETE CRAYTON, Best All-Round Boy

If anyone ever asks you who Pete Crayton is, just tell him that Pete is the best all-round boy at Central. That will be enough; because in a school as full of good all-round people as Central is, to be elected the Best All-Round Boy really sets one off from the rest of the world.

BETTY BAXTER, Best All-Round Girl

Betty really deserves to have the title of Best All-Round Girl. You would have to look a long way to find a better sport than she. Getting along well with people is one of the great secrets of life, and Betty seems to have found that secret.

JOHN GIBBS, Biggest Bull-Shooter

They say Alexander is a "swoosh," but Alexander is just small fry compared to John Gibbs. He's a bull-shooter. If the draft gets him, he'll probably be put in the trench digging division. He's had lots of experience with a shovel. They may even install him as a new propaganda machine. But if the draft fails to get him he will become a second Joe E. Brown.

CAROLINE COOPER, Biggest Heart Breaker

The next time you're in Charleston be sure to see the Cooper River. You must do this to be able to comprehend the destruction wrought by Caroline Cooper. They say that all the tears that she has caused to be shed would make this river overflow.

BOBBIE MILLER, Boy Most Likely to Succeed

We often wonder if Bobbie ever attempts anything in which he doesn't succeed, after seeing the way he always sticks at a job till he's won. We can guess that in the shortest possible time, he'll have specs on the end of his nose, looking very wise, and calling himself, "Dr. Miller."

MARY CATHERINE MCINTYRE, Girl Most Likely to Succeed

Mary Catherine is well on her way to success. One of her recent successes was the winning of the D. A. R. citizenship award, the highest honor that can come to a Central girl. Her success lies in other fields also. (Notice that she is already riding in a new station wagon.)

LIFE ON THE NEWSFRONTS OF THE WORLD

Andrew Karres Concedes Victory to Robert E. Miller.

The day was May the 30th, the hour was 2:45. The place was the renowned student council office of Central High School. An anxious mob of students surged closer and closer around two boys who squatted on the paneled floor. No one moved; every eye was fixed on the dreadful sight. Now a murmur quivered through the crown. Now silence; some more silence. Quickly one of the two boys on the floor flipped a round object with extreme dexterity and sank back to rest beside his companion. Wearily the other chap rose and prepared to play. Slowly he turned his little round piece and—zingo—he had failed. A mighty shout broke loose and the mob rushed forward. The winner of the battle rose in glory; the loser slumped in defeat. Robert E. Miller had defeated Andrew H. Karres in the greatest battle of pinochle the inhabitants of the student council office had ever seen. (President Miller will leave immediately on a two-weeks' fishing trip to recuperate.)

"Butterball's" Dilemma. Last week at exactly five minutes past twelve, stocky, plump Bill Morris stomped heavily down the steps to the school cafeteria and entered with a frown. Swiftly he crossed the floor and halted in front of the bread counter. A heated argument ensued and the conversation grew into awful shouting. The manager was called. The assistant manager was called. Finally the trouble was solved. It seemed that "Butterball" had been eating the delicious rolls and raisin muffins all year long and could stand it no longer. In frenzied shouts, he declared that he had gained over eleven pounds in the last 3 months, and that something would have to be done. In a tearful voice he cried, quote: "How in the world can I, 'Butterball,' keep my figure down if they keep serving those buns?" Later "Butterball" compromised on a pineapple salad (without mayonnaise, of course).

All last week, secret police and local detectives lay in wait. Toward afternoon on the hot sultry day of May 25, two boys walked into the locker room and the biggest of the two proceeded to open their locker. The signal was given and the law closed in. The big burly youth raised his voice, sniffed the air. He could smell the trap. Ka-Pow-Ka-Pow roared over a dozen sawed-off shotguns. Surrender came a few seconds later. Police poured into the locker room and busted open the weatherbeaten old locker. They found only a few insignificant articles, the most important of which included, four bayonets, one 240 mm. howitzer, seventy pounds of shrapnel, two cases of dynamite, two machine guns, 325 pound fragmentation bombs, and 200 rounds of ammunition. When questioned about their little nick-nacks, the husky chap answered modestly, "Aw, me and Parker was jus' plannin' a little 'coon huntin'."

Great Men Speak. Last week the women of the local Spinster's Aid Society had the distinct honor of hearing three of the greatest men on the newsfronts today. Mrs. Mary Catherine McIntyre Donald Rodgers (as she wishes to be called) first introduced Charles "Autoborne" Sellers who talked on the O'leely Bird who now sings only by O'hahi, the laughing waters of the Cat-a-wa-ba. Mr. Sellers stated that the O'leely bird was well known to the Indians of this region but that this bird was rapidly becoming extinct.

Mrs. Donald next introduced Louis "Ironstine" Potter. Mr. Potter spoke on his own theory of vexation of the mire of the ilk of the class treating of the sides and angles of triangles. These theories are well known to our own Miss Eleanor Markham whose theories are contrary to those of Mr. Potter.

Mrs. Rodgers then introduced Mr. Will Hienz. Mr. Hienz discussed Mr. Potter's theories pro and con with those of Miss Markham's and also entered some cogitations of "Daddy Alchemist" Norman. It all ended in the local dilemma "jug" at a noted state institution.

(Ed. Note)—Mr. Sellers is also known as "Boss" Sellers, these days because of his renowned political relations with contesting powers. Mr. Sellers has never run for any office of prominence but his "jerk" is noticed in every political rally.

Unhappy Landing. A terrible wind blew across the Eastern section of Central Hemisphere some days ago. The wind whipped into nostrils and eyes in a fury. It was concentrated near Normanity which is located in the extreme southeastern section of Central Hemisphere. It was also felt with great "aws" in Longamity and Pricesimminy which are adjacent to Normanity. Some citizens heroically pulled out of the dive with nose close but were caught in another downdraft. Handling themselves superbly, the citizens landed right side up in a desk. There were no casualties. Said one Citizen: "We definitely don't enjoy these wind storms. After investigation by committees from Longamity and Pricesimminy, it was discovered that the many gas producing machines in Normanity were not operating properly and producing the fowl gust of wind. This was especially noticed around the habitation of Donald Lampke of Normanity who is not a gas producer but was belching forth hot air as usual.

PICTURE OF THE YEAR

The darkest hour of Central's History was probably the last week in April. It was on that day that the school's beloved custodian, guardian and friend, Nellie "Scooter" Freeman refused to be a candidate for the city councilman of Charlotte, N. C. For many years, Nellie has been with us at C. H. S. and through the years has almost become a tradition. And so when on the 23 of April Nellie was urged by his many friends to run for city councilman, the school was broken-hearted at the though of losing its fine custodian. The night of the 23rd was spent in thoughtful and sincere deliberation by "Scooter" and his decision made. Yes, on the morrow, he announced to a waiting world of students and gobs of cameramen and reporters that he had declined the nomination and would not run. With tears in his eyes Nellie bade farewell to all political ambitions and went back to water the front steps.

There you see him on the opposite page, standing in front of his cherished institution. Nellie Freeman, thoughtful, kind, cheerful, dependable, we salute you.

Central Gives Atlanta Tech a Thorough Pasting

Mr. Moore assists the referee as No. 6 knock-out victim bites the canvas.

In the worst defeat ever administered by the locals, a knock-out studded program classed the Atlanta-Charlotte clash as one more step up for the Central beaser busters in gaining national recognition. Never in the pugilistic history of Central has a more furious program been witnessed by the many loyal followers of the team. As in every win, strategy plays an important role to the extent of sure victory. After the first two bouts, Central's Ringmaster, Vincent Bradford, saw the visiting team was particularly weak in the body. The word was passed on to the locals and in every case the knockouts were solar plexis blows or heart punches. Central's fine interscholastic record is due to the intelligent training of Vincent Bradford.

Starting this superb fistic array of knockouts was our cunning and fiery Jimmie Meena. Jimmie fought his usual cool fight in the first round and by 1 minute and 22 seconds of the second round his foe was beaten into submission by a sharp snapping right to the solar plexis.

Larry Idol, our boxing glamour boy, showed the calmness and ring poise any professional would be proud to possess. His bout, which was ruthlessly a one-sided affair, was stopped after 1 minute and 25 seconds of the first round. Larry is classed as the smoothest boxer the South has seen in many years.

Sure-winner Dwight Moore next came to the battle front to administer his knock-out patent in one minute 35 seconds of the second round. Amid a fury of blows the Atlanta lad dropped to the canvas to end the bout.

In the faster class of boxing, Central was well represented by Nevin Rice. Nevin's smooth counter-punching and artistic footwork enabled him to gain a knock-out in 1 minute and 32 seconds of the second round. The punch that told the tale was so fast and furious that only those possessing ring-side seats were able to conceive the whereabouts of the punch.

Next, Ray Kissiah stepped in to finish his bout in one minute and 52 seconds of the first round. The Atlanta kid was dropped to the canvas twice by left hooks to the solar plexis, then the third time the Atlanta pug stayed for the count.

In the final bout of the evening's program came the Central leader, Pug Green. Two right crosses, appropriately timed and placed, were the Waterloo of the Atlanta captain. This bout was classed as the fastest of the night's array of knock-outs. Green showed superiority in every respect and the bout was, without any doubt, won before a punch was thrown.

Top: Captain Green's wallop in action. Time: 1 min. 43 sec.

Central's State Champion Kinsey adds one more to his list of victims.

Left: Jimmy Meena, Central's scrappin' Greek, continues his knock-out list in time of 1 min. 4 sec.

Right: Jimmy Basinger, Central's youngest veteran, tears into Atlanta's captain and did the job nicely in a furious bout.

Top: Ex-Captain Kissiah's opponent who didn't last long.

Central's Nevin Rice wins his fight with the same good form.

THEATER

The Dramatics Department's first presentation was a one-act comedy put on during the guidance periods by the 7th period Dramatics class. The title was "A Marriage Proposal" with Dick Cohen, Jackie ReQua and Gene Graeber as the stars. It was directed by the department's new director, Miss Mary Louise Greene.

"You Can't Take It With You," a successful Broadway hit and Pulitzer Prize winner, was the first three-act play presented. It kept the audience roaring with laughter every minute and they still remember the way Bill Rice kissed Anita Kenney. Everett Campbell, Mary Oltman, Anita Kenney and Bill Rice played the leading roles with a swell supporting cast.

The Variety Show which is an annual affair featuring school talent in every field and given to raise money for the Student Assembly was better than ever having every one in the school coöperating. It featured such notables as Kemp Dunnaway and his band, Helen O'Neal and Gordon Houser. A student throw-off on the teachers and a gay ninety melodrama were presented.

Following the Christmas holidays the Dramatics Department began working on "Marco Polo." It was presented in February, in connection with the Junior League.

Mr. Pinna (Buck Thompson) concentrates on the Racing Form as he immortalizes The Discus Thrower.

Whoops! Thar she went. Ted and M. C. Rountree keep their eyes on the famous Oscar . . . Central's Torch Singer (Helen O'Neal) and incidentally a very good singer and very good-looking—or did you notice? . . . God bless America finale of Variety Show with the Boy's Quartette . . . The Sycamore's dancing daughter, and candy-maker par-excellence (Edna Earl Newman) demonstrates what made Pavlowa famous . . . The dastardly villian and sodden sot —or he would have been if the heroine hadn't been his daughter. Emmett Bryan created this bit . . . Grandpa (Everett Campbell) meets the Wall Street father of his daughter's fiance. Mr. Kirby doesn't look too happy about Grandpa's pet rattlesnakes . . . —And this was only dress rehearsal! Anita and Bill warm up for serious business in You Can't Take It With You . . .The Sycamores—plus a few hungry stray Russians—return thanks, with Grandpa officiating.

THEATER Continued

Ernest Smith played the title role with Buck Thompson, Audrey Goeller, Gene Graeber, Everett Campbell and a host of others supporting. It was a children's play and thoroughly enjoyed by every child that attended.

The Dramatics Department played host to Concord, Mooresville, and Gastonia in the regional contest of the Carolina Playmaker's Spring Festival.

The Chinese Princess (Betty Shelton) awards Marco Polo (Ernest Smith) a golden crown for saving her from bandits. This scene from Marco Polo for the Children's Theatre.

Marco Polo is ready to light the magic Fire Powder and save his father (Everett Campbell) and uncle (Buck Thompson) from the wrath of Kublia Kaan (John Vickers).

The elder Polos are ready to sail to the Orient. Thompson and Campbell cast off while Angela (Natalie Harrison) hands them a farewell present.

A one-act play was presented by each school and were judged by official judges. Concord was the winner with Mooresville second, Central third, and Gastonia fourth.

Central presented "How She Lied to Her Husband" with Patsy Lee Mills, lying to Gene Graeber about Bill Rice. All of Central's plays were under the direction of Miss Mary Louise Greene.

"This won't hurt at all"—before the curtain of How He Lied to Her Husband for Carolina Dramatic Festival Regional Eliminations. Miss Greene, Bill Rice, Patsy Lee Mills, Gene Graeber.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the most illustrious and highly sagacious class of the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-one, being in possession of a sound body and perhaps a sound mind and desirous of leaving for the annals of history some record or statement of the many members of our class who will some day crowd the halls of fame, do this day declare all previous wills made by us, to be null and void; and wishing to give vent to our copious generosity in some form or other, we do hereby order and establish this as our last will and testament and do set in motion the massive machinery of the law in order to preserve this document and the desires conveyed thereupon in legal writ for all time. We do now make the following dispensations of our valuable property, our characteristic traits, and our great hopes.

ARTICLE I

To The Faculty

Item 1—To our esteemed principal, Dr. Garinger, (see cut 1) we leave our thanks for his patient and persevering interest in us.

Item 2—To Miss Fraser (see cut 2) we leave our sincere appreciation for her aid and advice and hope that next year's Student Assembly will not worry her too much.

Item 3—To Miss Mac we leave the faculty and incoming Seniors for her to fuss about.

Item 4—To Miss Eleanor Markham we leave the fond remembrance of orderly classes and attentive pupils in their seats.

Item 5—To "Pop" Norman (see cut 3) we leave our hopes for a good home room although we know that he could never find any worthy of taking the place of this year's boys.

Item 6—To Miss Bertha (see cut 4) we leave a new set of Marshals (for better or worse as the case may be) and also our appreciation for getting us by the inspectors.

Item 7—To Miss Fannie we leave our sincere wishes for a successful year on the market.

Item 8—To Mr. Tinkham we leave the results of this year's physics problems and hope they don't vary too much next year.

Item 9—To Miss Akers (see cut 1) we affectionately leave the title, Maw Akers.

Item 10—To Mr. Dysart we leave our wishes for a happy married-life and know that he will never be henpecked.

Item 11—To the men we leave the advice, don't rest too much at lunch period again.

Item 12—To Miss Jessie we leave our desire for a boy editor and the remark that girls just weren't cut out for that kind of work.

Item 13—To Mr. Allred we leave complete plans for the revolution.

Item 14—To the coaches we leave our hopes for bigger and better teams.

Item 15—To Nellie Freeman (see cut 5) and his shadow we leave the care of that paradise of wild life, the pride and joy of Central, Freeman Park.

ARTICLE II

To the Underclassmen

Item 1—We, the Seniors of 1941, leave to the underclassmen our love of Central with the hope that they will enjoy high school while they can.

Item 2—To the rising Seniors we leave that feeling of superiority which we can't take with us and which will always be a possession of the Seniors.

Item 3—To the Juniors we leave those of our ranks who have been unable to withstand the hardships of seniority.

Item 4—To the underclassmen we leave the right to call the new class "those silly little sophomores."

ARTICLE III

To Various Individuals

Item 1—I, John "Casanova" Pender, (see cut 6) do bequeath my ability to fascinate the femmes to Jack McCraken.

Item 2—I, Ed Dudley, (see cut 7) regretfully leave a good Deal behind.

Item 4—I, Pug "Nacious" Green, (see cut 8) do bequeath my famed slugging ability and love of a good fight to Nevin Rice.

Item 5—I, Tommy Glasgow, (see cut 9) have barely enough energy to leave my carefree (ho-hum) and lazy disposition to Joe Kumpe.

Item 6—I, John Gibbs, Esq., M.B.S. (Master of Bull Shooting), (see cut 10) do bequeath my genius in this technical line to Buck Blalock.

Item 7—I, Bob Spurrier, leave to Rodman Robinson my skill in playing tennis and my ability to get along with the coach.

Item 8—I, Johnny Alexander, (see cut 11) do bequeath my smallness to Dick Van Every.

Item 9—I, Carlisle Adams, (see cut 12) leave my superior mentality and string of A's to Buck Thompson.

Item 10—I, Anne Guion, leave my spunk and ability to make a comeback to anyone who will break his leg and have pneumonia at the same time.

Item 11—I, Tut Diggle, take Harold Cook with me.

Item 12—I, Robert "Musclebound" Zackary, bequeath my Herculean physique to little David Coates.

Item 13—I, "Valter" Lyon, (see cut 13) do leave my complete control of the stage to Miss Green and the Dramatics Club.

Item 14—I, Amanda Parsley, (see cut 14) leave my bright smile and winning ways to Nancy Jane Ansley.

Item 15—I, Mason "Benny" Pistole, (see cut 15) leave my reputation as a mean clarinet player for Kemp Dunnaway to live up to.

Item 16—I, Willie Lee Simmons, leave my adeptness in fascinating the sixth period chemistry class to Martha Parrish.

Item 17—I, Bill Baynard, (see cut 16) do bequeath my industry and willingness to work to the next head of the Operations Committee.

Item 18—I, Mary "Hepburn" Oltman, leave my dramatic ways and excess of meaningless speech to Ruth Hayes.

Item 19—I, Andy Karres, leave my lasting popularity to L. A. Waggoner.

Item 20—I, Charles Sellers, leave my parliamentary rut and my inimitable love of birds to Stuart Shannonhouse.

Item 21—I, Watson Stewart, leave my quiet ways and love of the great outdoors to Wild Oscar Penegar (see cut 17).

Item 22—I, Nancy Montague, (see cut 18) leave my long admiring stag line to Virginia Livie.

Item 23—I, Huelett Grice, (see cut 20) leave my cherished nickname, "Daddy," to Keg Wheeler.

Item 24—I, Tommy Garrison, (see cut 19) general pest about school, worry wart, and Donald Lampke's brother, hope that I just leave.

Item 25—In conclusion, we, the Seniors, take with us memories of things left behind; our first day at school, football in the fall, the band on parade, Thanksgiving, Christmas dances, New Year's, snow fights, people home for spring holidays, sitting on the front steps in the morning, walking around the track at lunch period, warm sunny days in spring, the drowsy drone of recitation, the exodus at 3:00, last of May, annuals, June, Senior banquet, and finally commencement, the end of high school. These are things which we will never leave behind, memories we will always cherish; and times will come when we shall look back and say, "That was Central."

(Signed) The Class of 1941.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In September '38 five hundred timid wide-eyed sophomores assembled in the auditorium to be assigned to a home room. Time does such queer things that it is hard to realize that this same five hundred is the senior class of '41. With two-thousand five hundred new books in our library and all other requirements passed, we sophomores faced little danger of not being able to graduate from a grade A accredited high school.

Three weeks after school opened we made our first of a long series of weekly visits to the stadium to see Central open its football season with a 6 to 0 win over Barium Springs. Late in October, the dance loving sophomores had their first taste of those good old Central scrips.

After the two factions from Piedmont and Alexander Graham had had time to get acquainted, they elected Andy Karres, president; Joanne Newman, vice-president; Lester Brooks, secretary; Jimmy Foures, treasurer; and Mr. Price, class adviser. The Music Department reached a new high in its elaborate production of the "Pirates of Penzance." The dramatic life of Central was revived with two well attended productions, "Queens Husband" and "Pride and Prejudice."

Andy Karres was chosen to lead the class for another semester. Donald Bryant was elected vice-president; Anita Kenny, secretary; and Brevard Myers, treasurer. The annual Carnival was a success and was thoroughly enjoyed by the hundreds of students and patrons of Central who attended. High school students from all over the South had the opportunity of a glimpse of Central and its activity when they were here for the National Music Contest. The best high school bands in the South were here to compete. Central's band, orchestra, and chorus received the highest ratings given in their respective classes.

Our sophomore year ended with a sigh of relief, for when school reopened in September, our vacancies would be filled by boys and girls that we could look down upon and say to ourselves "Just sophomores." The first semester of our junior year found Billy Morris, president; Harold Cook. vice-president; Caroline Cooper, secretary; and Bill Garrett, treasurer; and Mr. Norman, class adviser. Andy Karres, serving as treasurer, represented the junior class on the Student Council.

September brought about a change in the athletic department. Coach Bradford, the popular mentor from Piedmont, was elevated to the coaching post left open when Coach Allen took over duties of Athletic Director of City Schools. For its Fall project the Music Department presented "Bohemian Girl," the first opera produced at Central. "The Bishop Misbehaves" and "Taming of the Shrew" were the plays produced by the dramatics of Central.

For the second semester Bobbie Miller served as president; Jimmy Foures, vice-president; Anita Kenny, secretary; and Betty Richard, treasurer. Early in May when the weather was just beginning to be warm and sunny, the band and orchestra journeyed down to the real "Land of Sunshine" for the National Music Contest. The high tradition of the band and orchestra was upheld; they received I ratings in all departments of competition.

The Junior Marshals, headed by Bobbie Miller, ushered the senior class out and made room for another class of proud seniors.

The first official action of the senior class was to elect Andy Karres, president; Stewart Childs, vice-president; Betty Richard, secretary; Bill Garrett, treasurer; and Mr. Price, class adviser. The following seniors were officers of the Honor Socety: Harriet Wilcox, president; Virginia Smith, vice-president; Lois Ritch, secretary; Emmett Bryan, treasurer. The heads of the school publications were: SNIPS AND CUTS—Brevard Myers, editor, Billy Morris, business manager; LACE AND PIG IRON—Joanna Houchins, editor, Lib Heard, business manager; RAMBLER—Polly Prince, Lib Simpson, Louise Smith, associate editors.

Central was represented on the gridiron by a team that proved themselves worthy of the school they represented. The Wildcats took revenge of the three defeats of the previous season by taking the same three teams, Winston, Columbia, and Atlanta Tech, and scoring impressive victories against each. The Variety Show was the next thing on the Winter docket, and it went over in a big way. The Carnival in the following semester was even bigger and better than the previous one.

No senior will ever forget the day when he came to school and found half his fellow students absent because of the flu epidemic. Likewise no senior will ever forget those hot sultry days he spent going to school in June when most schools had been able to set its students free nearly two weeks before.

The senior class elected Pete Crayton, president for the second semester. Harold Cook was elected vice-president; Mary Katherine McIntyre, Central's D. A. R. candidate, secretary; and Jean Denton, treasurer. The honor society elected Carlisle Adams, president, Jane Boovy, vice-president, Betty Sherrill, secretary, and John Lineberger, treasurer.

The reward to the band, orchestra, and chorus for a year's work came in the form of a trip up to Richmond for the National Music Contest. The trip was highly successful in all respects. A group couldn't have had a more enjoyable trip or a more profitable one. This history would be incomplete without paying tribute to the fine athletic teams that have been produced by our two genial coaches, Coach Bradford and Coach Boylston. The football, baseball, basketball, and track teams have made records through these past three years that we display with pride. The boxing and tennis teams boast strings of victories that cannot be equaled in the history of Central. We have been proud of all our teams and proud that they bore the name of Central High.

The Class Day officers will be: Converse Rountree, prophet; Bobbie Miller, lawyer; Anita Kenny, artist; Dot Sappenfield, poet; and Theodore McLaughlin, historian. With a sudden shock we realize that our high school days are over; only a few days separate us from the time when we shall have completed a definite era. We shall always be able to look back on these years with pride and feel that these years spent together have given us at least a large part of the foundation upon which we have built the rest of our lives.

R. T. McLAUGHLIN,

Class Historian.

LIFE Goes To The Valentine Invitational

One evening in February 1941, from 9:30 to 12:30, Central High School of Charlotte, N. C., presented its first invitational dance of the year in the school gymnasium. The affair, as was expected, turned out to be a great success with the music of Gib Todd and orchestra rendering waltz, jitterbug, slow number, and occasionally a Conga. During the latter, the crowd usually stood around and spectated; not very often did a brave couple actually try the switching of hips essential to this type of dance.

The gym was very appropriately decorated by members of the dance committee in red and white with paper hearts adding the final touch. The decorating job, which includes climbing rafters and working day and night is always done by the boys on the dance committee and not envied in the least. LIFE'S photographer, while walking around admiring the scintillating young girls in their loveliest of dresses, stumble upon an attractive couple well known around the place and decided to follow them from beginning to end of the gay night. The results are found on this page.

P.S.—Our photographer, by the closing hours of the evening was completely worn out but hadn't danced a single step,—he sighs—"Ah! Youth!"
